is delighted to present

Competition in Energy and Regulated Markets:

On

Friday 25 November 2011, 9.00 am – 1.00pm

THE ST. STEPHEN'S GREEN, HIBERNIAN CLUB

9 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin 2

This conference will brief delegates on past experiences and new developments in liberalising Energy Communications and Regulated Markets. Future strategies for opening up regulated markets will be considered from policy, legal, economic and regulatory perspectives. Speakers will also consider transferable experiences and lessons that may be applied across a range of sectors. With the participation of key experts, this conference will provide an invaluable briefing and forum for discussion for all concerned.

Speakers:

- Mr Garret Blaney, Commissioner, Commission for Energy Regulation
- Mr Philippe Chauve, Deputy Head of Unit, Energy and Environment, DG Competition, European Commission
- Professor John FitzGerald, Economic and Social Research Institute
- Mr Pádraig Fleming, Director of Strategy and Regulation, Bord Gáis Energy
